

Announcements and Reminders

October 2025

FOR CONGREGATIONS

1. “A Message From God’s Word—Hope for Refugees!”: The article “A Message From God’s Word—Hope for Refugees!” was recently released on jw.org and JW Library in the “More Topics” article series. The article has been designed for use in the ministry, especially in territories with refugees. A PDF version of the article is also available for download on jw.org. The article will not be printed and distributed by the branch office. Where possible and practical to do so, publishers may print the PDF file for use in the ministry using a personal printer.

2. Walk Courageously With God: We are happy to inform you that a new book entitled Walk Courageously With God was released at the annual meeting on October 4, 2025. The Courage book will be available in digital format as soon as it is released on jw.org in your language. If you would like a printed copy of the book in regular or large-print format, please inform the literature servant. Additionally, beginning the week of July 20, 2026, the Courage book will be considered at the Congregation Bible Study. Having a personal copy of this study publication, whether in printed or electronic format, will enhance your spiritual progress and enable you to prepare for and participate in the Congregation Bible Study. If you or your children need printed copies, please request them from the literature servant as soon as possible. The audio for this book will be made available in most languages in the near future.

3. Nine New Tracts: At the annual meeting on October 4, 2025, nine new tracts were released. These tracts will be available in digital format as soon as they are released on jw.org in your language. Printed copies of each new tract will be distributed progressively to congregations worldwide over the next year or so.

[Read the following announcement only if publishers in the congregation use sign-language publications.]

4. Sign-Language Workbook for “Walk Courageously With God”: We are happy to inform you that a new workbook, created for note-taking while viewing the signed videos of the Courage book, will soon be available. The format will be similar to the current worksheets for The Watchtower and the Life and Ministry Meeting Workbook. The publication has been designed so that the same workbook can be used by all sign languages globally. The workbook will be available online as a downloadable PDF, and it will also be printed as a 256-page book. Having the workbook available as a PDF will be more convenient for publishers who prefer to take notes on a tablet. For such ones, there may be no need to request the printed workbook. Publishers who will use the printed workbook should request a copy from the literature servant as soon as possible.

[Read the following announcement only if publishers in the congregation use braille publications.]

5. Featured Convention Dramas in English and Spanish Braille: We are pleased to inform you that the featured convention dramas will be made available in English and Spanish braille for those who are blind and read braille. These braille transcripts include the audio descriptions and dialogue. Publishers may request the braille transcripts for Episode 1 of The Good News According to Jesus and Episodes 2 and 3 of The Good News According to Jesus through the literature servant.
